7/22/06 11:40 PM	TRESPASS WARNING	7/22/06 11:40 PM	MT AUBURN ST CAMBRIDGE	OPEN
Officers dispatched to a report that a group of seven individuals had possibly stolen a bicycle. Officers arrived and located three of the seven individuals. Officers report that there were four bicycles on the ground next to the three individuals. An additional officer located a fourth individual in the area. The four individuals were run for warrants/warrants with negative results and they were each sent on their way with a Trespass Warning for all of Harvard University property. One of the bicycles was left abandoned and confiscated by the officer. Officer then located the reporting party who stated that they observed an individual pulling on a bicycle that was located on the bicycle rack. The reporting party then observed three more individuals already on bicycles ride up to the individual at the bicycle rack. The reporting party then told the individual to put the bicycle back and the four individuals stated that the bicycles that they were riding were theirs and that they usually leave them on the rack temporarily. The reporting party stated that one of the individuals stepped towards them in a threatening manner and then all four individuals fled the area.
