Officers observed three individuals acting suspiciously. Officers observed two of the individuals speaking with the employees while a third individual removed a drink from the cooler. The individual then proceeded to the exit. Officers stopped the individual and asked them to produce a receipt for the drink to which they stated they did not have one because they thought their friends had purchased the drink. Officers report the two individuals that were previously speaking with the employees had now left the area. The individual in question was run for wants/warrants with negative results and sent on their way with a Trespass Warning for the Au Bon Pain. The drink was then discarded.
9/19/06 4:42 PM	THEFT REPORT	9/19/06 4:42 PM	AU BON PAIN 1360 MASSACHUSETTS AVE CAMBRIDGE	ARREST
Officers observed an individual enter the building with a backpack on their back and nothing in their hands. Officers then observed the same individual exit the building with the same backpack on their back and they were now carrying another one. The individual exited the building in a hurried manner. Officers conducted a search of the area and located the individual in a bathroom rummaging through the backpack that they were seen carrying earlier. When the individual was asked how they obtained the second backpack they stated that they had found it. While the officers were off with the suspect in question they were informed that an individual was reporting that their backpack had just been stolen. The suspect was then run for wants/warrants with positive results. The individual was then placed under arrest. During a search incident to arrest officers observed two cordless phones with the anti theft devices still attached. When asked where the individual obtained the phones they replied that they were stolen. The individual was then issued a Trespass Warning for all of Harvard university property.
